

Annual Statement of Results report concerning how the institution meets those responsibilities.

Research Integrity Developments and Activities

Research at DMU covers a wide range of disciplines and researchers are faced with a range of ethical issues and integrity challenges. Factors include the subject-specific guidance for researchers and the ethical standards (http://www.dmu.ac.uk/research/ethics - ad-governance/research-ethics-ethical - aplan) and the role of DMU Research Services in providing any changes to the ICF for each project at DMU.

d. Please see the Revised Code of Ethics

(<http://www.dmu.edu/research-ethics>)

2. The DMU Research Ethics Code of Practice (ReCOP), is subject to review and is currently being revised.

The 22/23 year, including guidance regarding the revisions, is available at the following link:

<http://www.dmu.edu/research-ethics>

3. Faculty Webpages - The Ethics and Integrity Webpages are subject to review. Faculty pages relating to the ethics and integrity are subject to review and may include the following information:

The page of Research Integrity can be found here:

<http://www.dmu.edu/research-ethics>

ad-ethics -integrity and the Research Integrity Ethics page can be found here: <http://www.dmu.edu/research-ethics> ethics -ees.8pc-(-)TjEMcaSpayLAd.45ib530(f)TdePT6dtJ5at(h)es(9B-302A)AtheBMGPes

DMU has received a Misdirection – Legation which states that each is to be integrated in a fair, objective and impartial manner by a three-member panel (i) primary criteria (ii) seeing and (iii) fair and equitable in the
and that it may be appropriate for a panel to be established to deal with such cases. This is clear from the fact that "A panel should be established to deal with such cases and integrated fairly, objectively and impartially in the process of the." (section 2.1).

As the DMU has advised by viewshed, the Misdirection Legation Panel has been established in subject matter.

0.7(i)-a]0(hi)--1.7(g) dated 7th March 2006 and a 1.7(e)